

SUPREME COURT OF TASMANIA

CIRCULAR TO PRACTITIONERS

No 11 of 2017

4 October 2017

WRITTEN SUBMISSIONS AND OUTLINES IN APPEALS

- 1 Practice Direction No 3 of 2017 imposes requirements as to the filing of written submissions in appeals to the Full Court and to the Court of Criminal Appeal.
- 2 Practice Direction No 4 of 2017 imposes requirements as to the filing of written outlines of contentions in appeals and review proceedings heard by single judges.
- 3 Whenever written submissions or outlines are required to be filed, legal practitioners are requested, at the time the hard copy is filed, also to email both Word and PDF versions of their submissions or outlines to the following address: supremecourt@supremecourt.tas.gov.au
- 4 This will assist the judges, especially when a judge wishes to quote from a written submission or outline in the judgment.

J A Connolly
REGISTRAR